Wealthy, mysterious Julia hires PI Mike Angel to find her missing sister — but the case takes a perilous turn, throwing Mike and his partner into an underground world of mobsters, corrupt politicians, and deadly crimes of passion! A riveting page-turner set in 1960s Chicago.

Julia Gateswood hires reluctant PI, Mike Angel, but Julia's social position and her sister's sordid past make this anything but a simple case. Julia's a power-hungry ex-beauty queen, married for ambition to congressman Henry Gateswood, a charismatic ex-professor running for a vacated US Senate seat from Illinois in 1962. When Julia's sister, a loose woman with past mob connections disappears, Julia calls on private eye Mike Angel, who quickly learns his new employer isn't everything she seems to be, but what she is beyond a doubt is a great hypnotist of Mike's libido. Can Mike live up to his father's dictum, never to bed a client?

Mike and his unofficial partner, Rick Anthony, a 25 year veteran of the NYC detective force and, whose vocabulary suffers from too many NYU grad classes, get to the crime scene before the police and follow clues that pit them against powerful Chicago mobsters.

One twisting aspect of Mike's investigative instincts is often timely warnings from the "voice" of his late father, and also through sensations felt in a long scar Mike won during a shootout with the Russian mob who was behind his father's death (in Dark Quarry). He also struggles with a desire to commit to Molly Bennett, his office manager and love interest, while conflicted with rescuing attractive babes who cross his path.

Warning! This is a Noir Novel complete with sarcastic humor back when PC wasn't eroding logic. If you find yourself laughing occasionally, that's okay. It's not a comedy. The 3rd in the Mike Angel Mysteries of complex, historical, erotic novels set in Chicago in 1962.
