A Personal Note From The Author:

My name is Brian Stephenson and I am a cat lover and owner. I have enjoyed the company of many cats throughout my life, but the folds, oh! the folds... what a breed! They have everything a human could look for. They are playful, intelligent, loyal friends, they are even good company for other pets, such as dogs!

Scottish Folds is a breed of cat which tends to bond strongly with their owners. They are good with adults and especially with children, making them suitable pets for families. Additionally, they are animals with great adaptability, thriving even at the most crowded places at ease.

That's why I've put together this step-by-step guide. It will help you become a great Scottish Fold owner!
