The Complete Book of Fingermath Edwin M. Lieberthal

The Complete Book of Fingermath is a 350-page, fully illustrated, digital version of the original printed book of the same title, with revisions that update the original. Fingermath is a simple technique that turns your ten fingers into an accurate calculator. Proved effective with hundreds of thousands of learners throughout the U.S., it's a skill that's accessible to everyone -- child or adult, (age 4 or 94 or in-between), slow or fast, special needs, teacher or parent -- if you can count from one to ten, Fingermath will work for you. Easy to follow, this new program has been designed and formatted in a way that enables viewing in black & white or color. Whatever brand of eReader you choose, this digital format will automatically adapt to it. Summing up teacher comments: "It's amazing! The children took to it like a game, with comprehension of Addition, Subtraction, Multiplication and Division, beyond grade level."
