Meeka and Rick were finally ready to start their life together.

After everything Rick and Meeka had gone through, it was just so nice to finally be happy and they were both ready to start a family together.

With Meeka being far along in the pregnancy she had decided to move in with Rick along with her son Malik. After all they were set to be married in a few weeks. Everything was going her way, and even her boss Johnny, who treated her terribly in the past, was treating her much better and giving her the best sections at the restaurant. For a waitress, she was doing very well, and appreciated the extra money. But something inside Meeka just didn't seem right, and she still had her doubts. Maybe she just wasn't used to things going her way, but she kept her rent controlled apartment on the side just in case.

In preparation for the wedding, Rick had asked Meeka to only take care of one task while he was working at the hospital. He wanted her to head to the bakery and choose the best chocolate cake for their special day. This was his one request, and she knew how much he loved chocolate. But when speaking to the baker a beautiful blonde woman overheard her conversation and started asking about Rick. Her name was Marla and she claimed she was a college ex of Rick's from out of town and she was very surprised that he was getting married, let alone having a child. This encounter startled Meeka and got her thinking about how much about Rick's past she really knew about?

A few days later on her way home, Meeka texted Rick saying she was just about 10 minutes away. When she got home there was a red sports car in the driveway that she had never seen before. As she walked slowly up the stairs and into her bedroom her world shattered into a million pieces. There was Rick, making out with Marla, who she had met at the bakery a few days ago. Meeka was absolutely devastated. Her tears blinded her as she ran out of the room calling off the wedding while Rick screamed that he could explain. Weeks passed by and their wedding day was just around the corner, but Meeka continued to ignore all of Rick's calls and texts, moving back in with her mom for support.

Sad and alone on what would have been her wedding day, Meeka decided to go to the theatre alone. While deciding on what to watch, a familiar voice caught her attention. It was her boss Johnny, and he had convinced her to watch a movie together, her choice of course. They ended up watching a great romance, talked for hours over frozen yogurt, until one thing led to another and they were both alone at Johnny's place. Meeka's heart was elsewhere but would her body betray her?

Will Rick and Meeka get back together? Or will Meeka pursue raw passion with her boss Johnny?
