Waking up tied spread-eagle to a bed wasn't in her game plan...

Alone and afraid, Ronnie finds that her Doms have bound her for their pleasure without her consent. A very distressed Gavin joins her, and she finds that the only consolation she can offer is to accept anything...everything...he has to give.

When Luis glimpses the lovers together, tangled in the sheets alone, he fears he is losing his place in the relationship. Learning that Gavin lost control and abused Ronnie infuriates him; the fact that Ronnie did not safe word when she should have almost pushes him over the edge.

The trio have to come to a new agreement about the power dynamics in their relationship, and the growing love they share.

EXCERPT:

He brushed her red locks aside and nibbled at the nape of her neck, sucked and bit from one side to the other. A ring of marks here on the back of her neck too, a collar of love bites and stamps so that anyone who saw her would know she was owned. That she belonged to someone else. Possessiveness and jealousy swept him. "Lie down on your side." After ensuring she had pillows under her head, he trailed kisses and licks all the way down her right side, from her shoulder to her ankle. She giggled and moaned, depending on where he kissed. He cataloged each reaction for later, saving them, savoring them, so that he could use the knowledge to tease or titillate her.
