In a facility outside Moscow, the great deeds of a nation are stored. Within the walls of the Archives of the Russian Ministry of Defense reside the stories of the bravery, the passion, the strength and sacrifice of the Soviet people during the Second World War. For the first time in history, No Deed Forgotten opens the doors of the Archives to the English reader, allowing for better appreciation of the great struggle of the Soviet people against their powerful foes from 1941 to 1945.

No Deed Forgotten is based entirely on the official citations for the orders and medals awarded to Soviet soldiers, airmen, and naval personnel of the Red Army, Air Force, and Navy during WW2. Starting with biographical stories of nine award recipients and their experiences in life and in war, the book continues with hundreds of translated award citations for the Hero of the USSR and the Orders of Lenin, Nevsky, Patriotic War, Red Banner, Red Star, Glory, and the Medals "For Valor" and "For Military Merit". Replete with hundreds of color photographs of the original awards and documents, this book is a must-have for every military historian as well as those who are interested in some of the fiercest fighting in history: WW2 on the Eastern Front.
