Does the FBI train their agents to deal with problems of modern times ? Could the tragedies at Waco and Ruby Ridge, the attacks on 9-11 and the Boston Marathon have been prevented? The award-winning author of this revealing and controversial book, a retired FBI Special Agent, believes they could have if only New Agents were properly trained. But they weren't. Weeks of their initial training at the vaunted FBI Academy were a complete waste of time. Several years ago, a Washington pundit wrote The FBI is training their agents to arrest Bonnie and Clyde, but trying to find Osama Bin Laden. Laugh at this statement if you choose, but FBI Animal House will prove the statement is true. What new FBI agents DIDN T learn will shock the public. Highly Trained Federal Agents is a lie. Poorly Trained would be far more accurate. It's an embarrassment and a fraud which should have been corrected by the 1980's and later, but wasn't. No book has ever taken the reader inside the FBI Academy. This one does, and exposes training which was more suited for the 1930's than the 1980's and 90's. You will follow a class through the entire academy and be astounded at what they did to cope, and what they failed to learn.
