Katsujinken delivers insight and informative works for the discerning mixed edged weaponry practitioner among either Eastern or Western traditions. With an initial quarterly release, the magazine will be available in digital and print form. Katsujinken portrays artistic renderings concerning all facets of swordsmanship an aspiring edged weaponry connoisseur desires in a publication. Representing the “Life Giving Sword,” by its very title, Katsujinken introduces innovative themes where industry highlights are set against rich imagery. Readers benefit from well-balanced exchanges between modernism, historical perspective, and expert wisdom through featured silhouettes.
