As a Man Grows Older (New York Review Books Classics) Italo Svevo, Beryl De Zoete, James Lasdun
Not so long ago Emilio Brentani was a promising young author. Now he is an insurance agent on the fast track to forty. He gains a new lease on life, though, when he falls for the young and gorgeous Angiolina- except that his angel just happens to be an unapologetic cheat. But what begins as a comedy of infatuated misunderstanding ends in tragedy, as Emilio's jealous persistence in his folly-against his friends' and devoted sister's advice, and even his own best knowledge-leads to the loss of the one person who, too late, he realizes he truly loves. Marked by deep humanity and earthy humor, by psychological insight and an elegant simplicity of style, As a Man Grows Older (Senilità, in Italian; the English title was the suggestion of Svevo's great friend and admirer, James Joyce) is a brilliant study of hopeless love and hapless indecision. It is a masterwork of Italian literature, here beautifully rendered into English in Beryl de Zoete's classic translation.

Lowell Decoteau:

As a college student exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library or to make summary for some book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's heart and soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this As a Man Grows Older (New York Review Books Classics) can make you really feel more interested to read.
