David Tuccaro Jr. is a Mikisew Cree First Nation. Born and raised in Ft. McMurray, Canada he takes you on a tumultuous journey of self-discovery through pain, hopelessness and the feeling of inadequacy. His father, one of Canada's most successful business leaders, sets the bar so high David is fearful of aiming for it. Searching to find his purpose, he desperately attempts to live out his passion. His only reprieve is to dive inside music and find healing from there as he struggles to fit in a world that doesn't understand him. Unaware of his horrific fate, David captivates you with a tour through his experiences. He shares the shocking revelation of what happens when you don't appreciate the value of life. When it's nearly ripped from him without forewarning, David must find the courage and strength to battle something so vile and vicious, no one believes he can conquer it, because it's Bad to the Bone!
