Today, more than ever, all students need a safe place to share their feelings and concerns with supportive peers and an attentive, caring adult. This unique, easy to implement, and highly effective discussion process is based on years of experience in teaching and leading discussion groups worldwide. It is a proven and highly acclaimed way to reach young people of all ages. Through participation in Sharing Circles, students get to know who they are, how they function, how they relate to others, and they learn to believe in themselves. Most importantly, it provides the safety net of social bonding with others - perhaps the most important link to violence prevention and safe schools. Connect with all your students through this simple yet profound process. Grades K-12.
