George Muller My Journal George Muller

Another quality eBook from Chapel Library. George Müller: My Journal shares many incidents from his life that are most instructive for the Church today. Müller remains one of history's great men of faith. In these personal accounts from his own pen, he shares with us a biographical sketch of his early life and specific incidents spanning the years from 1830 to 1863, including his early days in ministry up through caring for thousands of orphans. These selections were gleaned from the journal that Müller kept throughout his life by HeartCry Missionary Society; the principles contained herein have been used of the Lord to shape the ministries of both it and Chapel Library.
