This book is going to go past your expectations and make you visualize yourself as a person staring at the world through a looking glass. It will make you question yourself, your life, your status, your dreams . . . And the best part about is it does not matter if you understand just one paragraph or one concept the book itself is a ideal of transforming peoples dreams into life and life into dreams. So first and foremost, and last and least, read with an open eye because it can only get better if your more accepting to the idea that we are not prejudice.
