Book 1 of 3: A Secret Life - Kristine's life seems perfect from the outside - she is beautiful, impeccably dressed, and smart. She can even hunt and shoot better than most men, thanks to the close attention of her father, a police officer. But she keeps a dark legacy hidden from those around her. Only Daniel – persistent and loving – is able to break through her protective shell to get close to her. When Kristine's shame comes to light in a violent, highly publicized event, her perfect life shatters beyond recognition. A Year for Kristine is a fast-paced tale of guns, cars and steel, within the culture of a dying mill town. It is also a sensitive portrayal of a young woman struggling into adulthood, who has to learn how to fight for everything that is important to her.
