Beyond the Wall of Sleep R. Andrew Heidel

Beyond the Wall of Sleep collects 10 years' worth of short prose and poetry by Andy Heidel, a young Brooklynite apparently influenced by the introspective fantasies of Ray Bradbury and Neil Gaiman. Cited in the 1997 edition of The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror, Beyond the Wall is a peek into the diary of an up-and-coming heir to the world of dark fantasy--Heidel's stories are intensely personal, and full of intriguing snippets of ideas. His themes include death, God, sex, and the soul. Each is contained in a short portrait or vignette--like a series of intimate black-and-white photographs in a fascinating, but anonymous, photo album you found on the street. --Therese Littleton
