Dr. Kelly Flores Founding Dean and Professor, School of Applied Leadership, City University of Seattle

If you want to live life on your terms, whether it is traveling the globe or just being home with the kids, online teaching is the job for you. Dr. Babb shows us in an easy step-by-step approach how to make this dream a reality. This game-changer investment of under $20.00 has personally given me a six-figure income in less than six months. I get to stay home with my son and give my family a wonderful lifestyle.

Debra Touhey CEO, SF Financial Services/Online Instructor/Stay-at-Home Mom

Bethel University, and top notch institutions everywhere, are seeking educators who can remove the distance from "distance education" - individuals who can not only teach, but reach online students. Truly qualified "adjunctpreneurs" are in high demand, but low in number. Dr. Babb's book helps prepare educators for the rigors and rewards of online education, providing them with a step-by-step guide to the very real world of the virtual classroom.

Kelly Sanders-Kelly Executive Vice President, Bethel University

The newest edition of Dani Babb's classic text teaches you how to gain important advantages in the highly competitive online education labor markets. Anyone looking to enter this field, acquire more work, or "trade up" to better jobs will benefit tremendously by applying Babb's keen insights!
